

#6 – BEACH AND PARKING LOT REGULATIONS

Adopted March 8, 1975 – Article 13

1. The use of alcoholic beverages on the beaches and in or upon any and all parking lots or areas easterly of Ocean Boulevard in the Town of Rye and in the Recreation Area off Locke Road and in Parsons Park, so called, is hereby prohibited.
2. For the purposes of this regulation, the term “beaches” is defined as that area from the southerly end of Fort Dearborn, so called, to the North Hampton town line where the Atlantic Ocean touches the land and includes swimming beaches as well as rocky beaches or outcrops and the term “parking lots or areas” is defined as any area easterly of Ocean Boulevard in the Town of Rye which is adjacent to any beach as herein defined which allows for or is commonly used for the parking of motor vehicles whether the same be a recognized, regulated parking area or not.
3. The Rye Police Department is hereby authorized and directed to enforce this regulation by issuance of summons to the Rye Municipal Court for violations hereof.
4. Persons found guilty of violations hereof shall be subject to the same penalties set forth for violations of Town Ordinances. NOTE: On March 10, 1970, Article 25, it was voted to increase the fines levied for violation of any Town ordinance from $10.00 to $50.00 as provided in RSA 31:39.
5. The Highway Agent is hereby directed to post sufficient notices at appropriate places in order that the public may be apprised of this regulation.
